Harris Institute.

The next term of my school will open Tuesday, Sept. 1st, 1891. For terms apply to Mrs. L. L. Harris.

Give Sharp, Trimble & Denton a call if you want special bargains in hats, gents' furnishing goods, etc.

Fifteen acres of good grass within 2 miles of the city, not been grazed this season, plenty of water. Apply at this office.

Mr. Thos. Domigan was taken suddenly and severely ill with congestion of the stomach and bowels on Friday morning. He has suffered intensely and is still a very sick man.

Mr. J. D. Wilson has bought the meat shop fixtures of Turley & Laughlin and is to be found, as of old, with the very best meats of all kinds on hand. He is now located at Laughlin's old stand, next door to Sharpe Trimble & Denton's, on Main street.

Mr. Jacob Trumbo, of this city, and Col. Dan Runyan, of the Live Stock Record, Lexington, spent Sunday with Capt. James Ewing, of Bath county. They had a very enjoyable time talking over their old Mexican war memories.

Mr. Mat. J. Holt, son of Chief Justice W. H. Holt, was examined by the Judges of the Court of Appeals on Tuesday and granted a license to practice law. He will probably locate at Pineville or Middlesboro for the practice of his profession.—[Frankfort Roundabout.

The entertainment on Thursday night for the benefit of the Library, was a financial as well as social success. Mrs. Richardson tells us she made about $95 above all expenses. Mrs. Richardson had worked very hard to make the entertainment a success, and we are glad for her sake that it came off so well.

Mr. J. K. Rodgers says that he has just received a letter from his partner W. A. Crawford, of Staunton, Va., which states that on account of heat, over 1,000 lambs died from Monday morning till Wednesday night and if this weather continues there will be thousands of dollars lost on lambs this season.

Mr. Thos. Greenwade and wife, of Frenchburg, were in the city several days the past week, completing arrangements for the entertainment of visitors to the District Conference, which meets at Frenchburg to-morrow. During the session of the Conference the new M. E. church will be dedicated, Rev. R. Hiner preaching the dedicatory sermon. A cordial invitation is extended to every one to attend these services.

Dr. A. Goldstein, the oldest and most skillful optician of Louisville, is stopping at Mrs. Mat. Coleman's. His experience of forty-seven years gives him a great knowledge in his profession. Persons, young and old, whose eyesight is bad and painful, will be benefited. Dr. Goldstein examines the eyes and gives suitable glasses to relieve whatever trouble may be existing. Any call for his services left at Mrs. Coleman's will be promptly attended to.

We are informed that several well-known gentlemen and prominent stock-raisers have secured an option on a 200 acre piece of land, which they propose to buy and upon which they will build a fair and trotting track in case the proposed track near the distillery shall prove a failure. The gentlemen referred to have the means and the energy to carry out anything they may undertake in this line, and whilst the track will not be quite so near the city as the one on the grounds of the Mt. Sterling Improvement Co.'s lands, still it will be very conveniently located. The gentlemen will also establish a breeding farm at the track.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Millersburg Female College, which appears in this issue. There is no better school for your daughters and you can commit them to no safer hands than to those of President Pope and his excellent faculty, who are determined to maintain the present high standard of the college. It is a Kentucky school and should be maintained by our people in preference to schools abroad, which are not, as a rule, so good, and generally more expensive. The recent concert and commencement exercises were ample demonstration of the character of the teaching done there. Patronize the school.

Reduced Rates to Frenchburg.

Tickets for the round trip to Rothwell, June 24 and 25th, good until the 26th. The M. E. District Conference convenes at Frenchburg June 24th. Tickets for the round trip only 80 cents, via the Kentucky & South Atlantic R. R.

C. F. Keese & Co. keep always on hand the choicest fresh meats.

The commencement exercises of the Public School of this city took place at the Opera-house, on Monday night of last week, and the many who attended pronounced the entertainment a decided success. The class of young ladies go out into the world well equipped for the battle of life; and their teacher has every reason to be proud of the work she has done in their behalf. Mr. L. T. Chiles pronounced it "the finest, the best-looking and the most intelligent the Mt. Sterling Public Graded School has ever turned out." On this point no one can take issue with him, but we will go further and say we believe the school will never have reason to be other than proud of the "Class of '91."

If you want to double your money in a short time, take shares in the National Building & Loan Association, of Louisville.

That genial gentleman and wide awake merchant Mr. W. L. Morris, has moved from the old Jack Wyatt stand to the large and splendidly appointed store room lately occupied by Friedlander & Marshall on South Main street, where he will be glad to see his many friends. His new quarters will give him ample opportunity to display his goods. He says: "If you want to buy groceries, boots, shoes or gents' furnishing goods and desire to buy them at prices that will make you money call at the new quarters of W. L. Morris. He always has on hand just what a good housekeeper wants for her table, he handles nothing but the very best in his line."

Cassidy & Smith want you to call on them before you buy your binder twine. They have some specially fine twine that they are offering very cheap. 45-2t

The Menifee County F. & L. U., will meet with Sulphur Spring Union on Friday, July 17th, at 9 o'clock a. m.; business of importance will occupy the attention of the meeting. The sub-unions of the county are entitled to three delegates each. It is earnestly requested that every sub-union be represented, as officers for the next year are to be elected and installed. Let us have a full meeting and a good time.

Thos. D. Murphy, County Sec'y.

The 12 per cent. net dividends of the National Building & Loan Association are better than the 15 per cent. dividends in any similar institution, as the National deducts nothing from monthly installments to pay expenses.

A party of gentlemen were sitting in front of Lockridge & Thompson's stable Sunday afternoon when Mr. W. W. Thompson, cashier of the Traders Deposit Bank, came up and the following dialogue took place between the cashier and Uncle Dud Lockridge:

Mr. Thompson—Uncle Dud you are a thinking man, and a man that reads the bible, I want to ask you a question.

Uncle Dud—I'll try and answer you. Mr. Thompson—Do you think there will be any banks in heaven?

Uncle Dud—No and d—m few bankers. Mr. Thompson suddenly discovered he had urgent business up street, and Uncle Dud's self-satisfied chuckle followed.

GRUBBS-HAZELRIGG.

A Brilliant Wedding.

Last Tuesday evening the merry wedding bells rang out their glad acclaim, as two hearts that had already pledged faith, were made fast and strong by a union of hands. Mr. Charles Drury Grubbs and Miss Mary Willie Hazelrigg were married at the Christian church on that evening. The presence of a crowd that so entirely overtaxed the capacity of the large audience room and gallery, that many were turned away, testified to the popularity of the contracting pair. The decorations were in perfect taste. No mere vulgar display, but an artistic mingling of flowers and evergreens that lent such a gladness, joyous, yet subdued air of happiness to the whole scene, that one knew intuitively that an artist had planned and executed the work. No mere pen description could do justice to the tasteful arrangement about the altar. The flower chosen for the chief element of decoration was the daisy, fit emblem of the modest and pure young woman who was to give her life into the keeping of a manly man. Under each of the outer arches hung a monogram of a name of one of the contracting couple, made of daisies studded with brilliants, and the effect was simply dazzling. Suspended just over where the bride and groom stood as they were made one, were two snow white doves, as if invoking gentle peace upon the happy pair. The hour having come, and the contracting couple with it, out of the chapel came little Susette Johnston leaning on the arm of Colonel Gatewood, and Landsdown Hoffman and Jamie French, another handsome little pair, and to the music of the wedding march walked down the aisle, and loosing the chains of daisies, admitted the ushers, Messrs. Robert Gatewood and Pierce Winn, and Robert Winn and Lawrence White, who were preceding the bridal party toward the altar. Up the right aisle came the beautiful bridesmaids, Misses Mayme Baldwin, Mary Owings, Katie Grubbs, Mary Magowan and Hattie Owings. Whilst up the left came the groomsmen, Wm. Sumrall, Roy G. Kern, Ed. Grubbs, A. A. Hazelrigg and C. C. Turner. Following the bridesmaids came the lovely bride leaning upon the arm of her scarce less lovely sister, Miss Jessie, her Maid of Honor, and after the groomsmen marched the handsome groom, attended by his best man, Mr. Carroll Hamilton. At the altar they met, and Elder H. D. Clark, with a ceremony decidedly appropriate, pronounced them man and wife. Then came from a large number of select voices, one of the most magnificently perfect renderings of the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin we have ever heard. The voices were backed and filled in by a number of instruments, but so well did they harmonize, that it seemed to be one grand burst of joyous melody. But to Mrs. Howard Howell, who presided at the organ, and whose deft fingers filled in the soft gliding grace notes, and to Professor Ed. Fogg, of Covington, who is known far and wide for his magnificent handling of the cornet, no small share of the successful rendering of this melodious joy song was due. To the notes of this gladness measure, the bridal party left the church, and the many friends said, "we witness so beautiful a wedding but once in a lifetime."

After the ceremony the bridal party and a large number of friends repaired to the home of the groom's father, Mr. Thos. Grubbs, where a handsome reception was tendered them. A large number of costly and elegant presents testified to the pair the good wishes of as many friends. We wish them God speed, and may the sky of their married life be always as cloudless and bright as it now is.

In the majority of Building and Loan Associations when your dues are 60 cents a month, 10 cents on each share is deducted from your dues to pay expenses. There is nothing of the kind in the National.

BIRTHS.

Born to the wife of James Cochran, on Spencer, Wednesday June 10th, a daughter.

DEATHS.

Mrs. Lillian Rogers wife of Mr. Samuel Rogers died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Bettie Stith, near Aarons Run, on Sunday morning last. Mrs. Rogers had been married about 12 years and leaves a husband and three children. She was a member of the Christian church and had made this city her home for several years. Burial at Sharpburg yesterday. The funeral services were conducted by Elder H. D. Clark, of this city.

Died at her home on Stepstone, Saturday, June 13th, Mrs. Mary Myers, aged 60 years. Mrs. Myers was a most estimable woman and one who will be sadly missed by those to whom her kind hands have ministered in their hour of suffering. She was one of those who was always willing to do what she could to relieve and help, where sickness or trouble overtook those around her. She leaves a husband, four sons, and a daughter to mourn the loss of one of the best of wives and mothers. Her maiden name was Conner, and she had a wide connection in this and Bath counties.

Mrs. Jennie T. Robertson, wife of Mr. E. F. Robertson, of this city, died at the home of her mother, Mrs. John P. Miller, in Lexington, on Monday, June 15th, 1891, aged 31 years. Mrs. Robertson was the daughter of Warren and Fannie Bain; was born May 31, 1860, and married to E. F. Robertson Jan. 20, 1881, since which time she has resided in this city. She was a devout member of the Methodist church, having connected herself with it when only 14 years of age, under the ministry of Dr. H. P. Walker. In all these years she has been a faithful, earnest Christian, attending to the duties of church and home with a fidelity and a devotedness that won for her a high place in the regard of her wide circle of friends. For three years she has been a great sufferer, but Christian fortitude and unflinching endurance marked her life. When the last great enemy came she met him with that fearlessness that is only born of a Christian's faith in the promises of the Merciful One. Gladly laying down the burden of her earthly cares, she had but the one regret of leaving her devoted husband and loving children, and, bidding them come to her in that blessed by and by, into which she so confidently entered, fell asleep in the arms of that Saviour she had so earnestly endeavored to serve. She leaves a husband and two children, Edmund, aged eight years, and Fannie Miller, aged three. These will keep in memory the loving kindness of the wife and mother who thought no sacrifice too great to make for her loved ones.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. R. Hiner and Rev. E. L. Southgate and the remains were buried in the Lexington cemetery. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in this hour of their sad affliction.
